AARON FELTON ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR POLK COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY

WEST SALEM – Attorney Aaron Felton today filed his candidacy for Polk County District Attorney. Currently Chairperson of the Oregon Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision, Felton has served as a Polk County Deputy District Attorney, Assistant City Attorney for the City of Salem, and Counsel to the House Judiciary Committee of the Oregon Legislature.

“I am committed to holding criminals accountable, safe communities, and effective crime prevention. As a former prosecutor, and manager of a statewide public safety agency I am prepared to lead the Polk County District Attorney’s office,” said Felton.

“As your next District Attorney, I will lead a team that aggressively, effectively, and efficiently prosecutes criminal activity, supports crime victims, and enforces the laws of Oregon with consistency and integrity,” said Felton.
